RAPID, LORCHA

1855

While flying Amer. colors, Rapid (Geoffrey) was seized by Chinese insurgents near Whampoa, Mch. 5, 1855. On same day she was rescued by U. S. S. Macedonian (Abbott). Her right to wear Amer. colors being in doubt, the question, on reference to the Amer. legation, was decided agst. her. Subsequently Rapid came into the possession of an Amer. trading house, and was placed in charge of one West, Br. subject, agst. whom charge of barratry was made. See China. Taiping rebellion.

1857

Early in 1857, West, a Br. subject, obtained possession of Rapid, belonging then to Amer. mercantile house of Heard and co., of Foo Chow, and attempted to commit barratry. H. B. M. consul at Foo Chow, Medhurst, disclaimed jurisdiction in the case and was supported by H. B. M. comr. Bowring. Bowring entered a complaint with the Amer. comr., Parker, agst. the Amer. consul at Foo Chow, Jones, for his action in the case. See China. Foo Chow. Consular courts.

E. E. and M. P. in France

Correspondence (Diplomatic American)

Secy. State, U. S. A.

(Van Buren)

1829 Nov. 7. [5.] Interview with Prince de Polignac on spoliation claims; called attention to duties levied on Amer. vessels at intermediate ports; Prince expressed friendship; etc. (22. 2. H. doc. 147, 68; ix, Reg. Debates, app., 232.)

— Nov. 19. [7.] Urgent foreign and domestic interests will delay adjustment of claims; political changes in France. (ib., 70; ib., 233.)

— Dec. 17. [8.] In conference with Polignac emphasized discontent in U. S.; argued agst. irresponsibility of France; cited cases of payment, etc. (ib., 71; ib., 233.)

1830 Jan. 7. [9.] Fuller stmt. of cases of European indemnity cited before Polignac in interview of Dec. 17; no important political changes; Chambers convoked for Mch. 2. (ib., 75; ib., 235.)

— Jan. 16. [11.] U. S. refuses to recognize distinction made under Berlin and Milan decrees; Polignac consents to make proposal in writing. (ib., 75; ib., 235.)

— Jan. 28. [12.] Polignac unprepared to discuss claims; establishment of more friendly relations with other powers. (ib., 80; ib., 237.)

— Feb. 16. [15.] In conference with Polignac agreed that U. S. would give time for payment if France would make a just acknowledgement of claims; proposal to limit redress to one class of cases only; agreed that France would indemnify "in all cases where property had not been definitely condemned and for all vessels and cargoes destroyed at sea"; mixed commission proposed. (ib., 80; ib., 238.)

— Feb. 25. [16.] French attitude agst. us; desirable to know views of President on suggestions made regarding Berlin and Milan decrees; an article might be framed to cover claims that conflict with those granted the powers. (ib., 84; ib., 239.)

1830 Mch. 21. [19.] Presented project of conv.; exception taken to lack of notice of French claims; assurances that U. S. are agreeable to reciprocal adjustment of claims of French subjects. (ib., 92; ib., 243.)

— Mch. 28. [20.] Polignac's introduction of Louisiana question; only once mentioned in conferences. (ib., 94; ib., 244.)

— Apr. 6. [23.] Interview with Polignac; adherence to French view of Louisiana treaty; difference betw. an ordinary commercial and a political treaty; refuses arbitration by a foreign power; prefers mixed commission; intimation to settle both claims by this tribunal. (ib., 98; ib., 245.)

— May 18. [27.] Conference with Baron Deffandis; injustice of uniting two claims; irresponsibility of France; friendship of King only could secure settlement; proposition would be unfavorably received by U. S. (ib., 100; ib., 246.)

— May 20. [28.] Prospect of Louisiana treaty dubious; suggestion of reduction of duties on French mines favorably received; indemnity impossible without some accommodation in recognition of Louisiana claim. (ib., 103; ib., 248.)

— May 29. [29.] Misapprehension of Louisiana claims; distinct acknowledgement of U. S. claims accomplished. (ib., 108; ib., 250.)

— Je. 8. [30.] Rpt. of commission hurried and ill-considered; times unfavorable for Amer. efforts. (ib., 118; ib., 254.)

— Je. 29. [32.] Reinstatement of negotiations; unfavorable time to push negotiations. (ib., 171; ib., 256.)

— Jly. 17. [36.] Projet still delayed; urges it be sent soon; France refuses to pay Amer. claims unless U. S. recognizes French claim under Louisiana treaty. (ib., 135; ib., 264.)

— Jly. 30. [37.] Political situation in Paris. (22. 2. H. doc. 147, 139.)

— Aug. 8. [38.] Need new letters of credence at once; Liberal party more opposed to U. S. claims than Royalists. (ib., 142; ix, Reg. Debates, app., 265.)

— Aug. 18. [39.] Effect of project to put all purchases of Amer. tobacco in hands of single contractor. (26. 1. H. ex. doc. 229, 4.)

— Aug. 18. [40.] King most friendly to U. S.; unable to present claims till letter of credence comes; proposition may be made for transaction en bloc; advise for pro rata abatement on special claims. (22. 2. H. doc. 147, 145; ix, Reg. Debates, app., 266.)

— Aug. 19. [42.] New Minister of Finance favors adoption of change in system of supplying régie with American tobacco. (26. 1. H. ex. doc. 229, 7.)

— Sept. 8. [43.] Change in ministry delays prosecution of claims; prospect of adjustment depends on reduction of Amer. demands. (22. 2. H. doc. 147, 147.)

— Sept. 8. [43, extr.] Transmits copies of corresp. on tobacco question. (26. 1. H. ex. doc. 229, 7.)

— Sept. 18. [45.] Opposed to suggestion of French Foreign Minister for an ex parte commission; favors either a mixed commission or settlement by round sum. (22. 2. H. doc. 147, 149.)

— Sept. 29. [46.] Nothing done with claims; ministry very cautious; impression claims are not a national affair; possible changes of ministry. (ib., 151; ix, Reg. Debates, app., 268.)

- 1830 Mch. 20. Expressing satisfaction at prospect of speedy solution of claims; requesting a verbal conference on Louisiana question. (ib., 94; ib., 244.)
- Mch. 26. U. S. can never admit construction of article asserted by French; U. S. has already proposed amicable settlement and will pay all claims on principle of perfect reciprocity. (ib., 96; ib., 244.)
- Mch. 27. Again stating in detail stand taken by U. S.; footing of most favored nations in the U. S. is that of reciprocity. (ib., 96; ib., 245.)
- May 20. Suggestions for settlement; in lieu of Louisiana claim reduction of duties on French wine; cotton to enter France free of duty; etc. (ib., 106; ib., 249.)
- May 26. Surprise at suspension of negotiations; conferences of later date intimated; again states exact position of U. S. on both questions. (ib., 112; ib., 252.)
- Je. 2. Concession suggested would be binding on U. S. for a fixed term; perpetual rate of duty incompatible with freedom that governments reserve; conciliatory sentiments expressed will find favor in U. S. (ib., 120; ib., 255.)
- Je. 25. Full coöperation in work which promises desirable results for both countries; subject of negotiation to be presented through projet of treaty answering to that presented in Mch. (ib., 126; ib., 258; 262.)
- Jly. 23. Earnestly calling attention to unsettled question of claims; termination depends on promised projet. (ib., 141; ib., 265.)

- Nov. 10. Van Ness to Salmon. King's determination as unsatisfactory to U. S. as previous decision; Spain recognized blockade by formerly revoking it; equality of circumstances in claims of U. S. with those of Gr. Br. cannot be denied. (ib., 42; ib., 249.)
- Dec. 6. Van Ness to Van Buren. Inquiry as to proceedings in case no prospect of arrangement; negotiations should be opened. (ib., 46; ib., 251.)
- Dec. 13. Van Ness to Van Buren. Requirements in case our government determines to resort to no strong measure, but proceeds as proposed to settle claims individually; to pass over present rejection of claims is to abandon them; some new course appears indispensable. (ib., 46; ib., 251.)
- 1831 Feb. 10. Van Buren to Van Ness. Memorial by N. Y. Snelling and other merchants and insurance companies of Boston on subject of a claim agst. Spain for capture, by a Spanish privateer in 1832, of brig Otter and her cargo. (ib., 13; ib., 237.)
- Jly. 1. Van Ness to Secy. State, U. S. A. (Livingston). Awaiting further instructions in regard to claims. (ib., 47; ib., 252.)
- Oct. 17. Livingston to Van Ness. Instructions in case of claims agst. Spain. President unwilling to consider Salmon's note a positive refusal to make compensation without making another appeal; nor is he convinced that Spain has one measure of justice for Gr. Britain and another for U. S.; get an explicit answer from Spain regarding what she will do about claims. (ib., 13; ib., 237.)
- 1832 Jan. 14. Van Ness to Calomarde. President unwilling to consider Salmon's note a positive refusal of claims; directly at variance with assurances and hopes held out by Spain; nor convinced there is one measure of justice for Gr. Br. and another for U. S. (ib., 48; ib., 252.)
- Jan. 25. Van Ness to Livingston. Randolph arrives; death of Salmon; place filled at present by Mr. Calomarde, Min. of Grace and Justice. (ib., 47; ib., 252.)
- Jan. 27. Ministro de relaciones exteriores, Spain (Calomarde) to Van Ness. Delay of explanations requested on Mr. Salmon's note. (xi, Reg. Debates, app., 254.)
- Jan. 28. Van Ness to Calomarde. Decision in note not that of Mr. Salmon but of council of ministers; omission to furnish explanation asked for Feb. 15, will be considered a refusal and negotiations closed. (23. 2. S. doc. 147, 54; xi, Reg. Debates, app., 255.)
- Feb. 10. Calomarde to Van Ness. Regrets insistence in demanding answer impossible to give; no wish to break negotiations. (ib., 55; ib., 255.)

Northern Boundary

That part of the correspondence concerning the Northern Boundary controversy betw. the U. S. and Great Britain, covered by this Index, arose out of the provisions of articles 6 and 7 resp. of the Treaty of Ghent. Art. 6 referred to that section of the boundary running through the St. Lawrence to Lake Huron and art. 7 referred to the section from Lake Huron to Lake of the Woods. A. Barclay was the Br. comr. under both articles and P. B. Porter was Amer. comr. The award of the comrs. closing the negotiations under art. 6 was dated Je. 18, 1822, and consequently antedates the scope of this Index.

Uruguay [Republica Oriental del Uruguay] was recognized as a republic in consequence of the treaty of Montevideo, the preliminaries of which were signed by Brazil and Buenos Aires Aug. 27, and the ratifications exchanged Oct. 4, 1828. On Oct. 22, 1830, Fructuoso Rivera was charged with the presidency, and was succeeded on Mch. 1, 1835, by Manuel Oribe. By the convention of Oct. 21, 1838, Rivera was re-instated as Chief Executive. In Mch., 1845, he was obliged to seek refuge in Brazil. On Mch. 19, 1846, he returned in a Spanish brig, and in Apr. following a revolution broke out in his favor. Vasquez and Pacheco took flight, and President Suarez named a new administration, and Rivera landed.
